

Jen Croneberger Client Testimonials

"I told the committee that in my 20 years of event planning, NO ONE has ever had 100% positive comments and ratings in the feedback ... Until you! Fabulous! You helped us move the needle dramatically toward a better culture."

Jennifer Cramer, CMP (PSBA) Director of Conferences and Events

"Jen was wonderful not only was she inspiring she was funny. She kept the group interested, and awake which was not an easy thing to do in a warm room right after lunch. The next day all the employees made a point of letting the committee know how much they enjoyed her speech, connection with employees who spoke with her afterwards. In short Jen was a huge hit. We were lucky to have her at our All Sta~ Event."

Kathy B. (Methodist Services)

"Jen, thanks for a great, motivational presentation ... it was a perfect fit for my retreat participants and a great integration with the rest of the day. Everyone loved you ... in fact I had a coaching session with one of the attendees this morning and we both were quoting our learnings!!! Thanks for adding so much to our retreat."

Michelle L. (Pinnacle)

"My (work) team and I were looking for a motivational speaker to come in to speak with us about team building and inspiration to 'Win Together.' Jen was the perfect fit for this, bringing in her own personal experiences while also engaging us with her fun spirit and great sense of humor. I would invite her to speak again for us in the future and definitely recommend her for anyone looking for a genuine and effective session!"

Lily E. (Smirnoff)

"Jen spoke at our Associate of the Year Luncheon and did a fantastic job. In the audience were a group of hourly and salaried associates and Jen was able to connect with effectively with all who were in attendance. Her delivery on the 5 C's of Leadership were very practical and inspiring. We will certainly consider using Jen in the future."

Steve H. (Giant)

"What an amazing 2 days we had with Jen.
The 5C's continues to be the talk of the group. Jen was able to accommodate the size of the event as well as the size of our budget. Her real life experiences brought things into an easy to understand concept for all ladies. Jen is a fabulous speaker with endless smiles, laughter and an I CAN DO attitude that sends everyone away with a new look the bad moments NOT the bad days. Thank you Jen we cannot wait to see you again. P & G Mehoopany Ladies of LIGHT”

Kim A (Procter & Gamble)

“Jen was briefed about the audience and even if she wasn’t, there would have been no issue. She had command of the room and no one moved, used their cell phone or had side conversations. She tied a lot of personal experience to the presentation and made it engaging because she did not lecture. I would like to use Jen again with a di0erent group and will recommend her whenever anyone asks me for a reference.”
